

Global CEO Programme for Africa

A transformational journey

Expand your global reach

As a senior leader, you map out your company's course, chart its strategy and foster a culture guided by clear objectives and a shared mission.

Today's global, interconnected world calls for senior leaders who are uniquely attuned to the economic currents and market shifts that could advance — or undermine — their firm's long-term sustainability.

The Global CEO Programme - Africa has been designed and developed for leaders like you. It will enhance your strategic vision and equip you with new tools to better navigate disruptive trends that could impact your business.

By merging the expertise of three top business schools and three global venues, the programme delivers a singular learning experience like no other.

Modules will take place in the following venues:

Strathmore Business School
Nairobi, Kenya

Lagos Business School
Lagos, Nigeria

Yale School of Management
Connecticut, USA

The journey

Expand Your Global Vision and Reach

The Global CEO Programme for Africa includes 3 residential modules in Nigeria, Kenya and the USA.

The experience

Exclusively Designed for Senior Leaders

The know-how

Practical, Just-in-Time Knowledge

The case method, interactive lectures, workshops, group discussions, study groups and CEO panels will all stimulate actionable insights that you can immediately apply at work.

The results

Address a Real Business Challenge

Analyse a business challenge specific to your organization and gain invaluable feedback and support from expert peers.

"The perfect programme for a global minded leader. Well suited to the African context and incredibly impactful"

Ayodeji Balogun
Director West Africa, AFEX

A powerful alliance

The Global CEO Programme for Africa is led by three renowned business schools: Yale School of Management, Lagos Business School and Strathmore Business School. Participants gain new insights under the guidance of expert faculty.

Individuals will be granted Alumni status in two of the three schools namely: Lagos Business School & Strathmore Business School and will be invited to join as members of the respective Alumni associations.

Lagos
Business School

Lagos Business School is a leading institution in Africa dedicated to creating and transmitting business and management knowledge relevant to emerging markets. Located in Africa's second largest city, Lagos, LBS delivers executive education at top, middle and junior management levels, aiming to systematically improve the practice of management on the continent. We offer a wide selection of open-enrolment and executive programs prepared around essential issues in business. Customized in-company programs are also designed for organizations that need to develop large groups of staff in a particular discipline.

Strathmore
Business School

In 2005, Strathmore University made a bold step; to start a business school that served leaders in positions of influence in society. It is our belief that when leaders are positively impacted, the ripple effect will be felt in the society at large. Strathmore Business School has served and influenced over 8,500 business leaders, policy makers, professionals and thought leaders across the continent. It is SBS's mission to develop transformative business leaders because the bewildering rate of change in new ethical and governance challenges increases the demand for great ethical leaders with a passion for excellence.

Yale
School of Management

The mission of the Yale School of Management is to educate leaders for business and society. Yale School of Management seek students who care deeply about the problems afflicting our world and equip them with the knowledge, the resources, and the networks to pursue positive and ambitious change—whether that takes the form of launching a business that can refashion its market, advancing far-reaching and rigorously considered policy initiatives, or steering a multinational corporation with keen awareness of and respect for its impact on workers, communities, and the environment.

“The business terrain in Africa, as in the rest of the world, is changing rapidly and in unexpected dimensions - disruptive influences have quickly come to the fore. Any CEO, especially those operating from Africa, thinking of coming to or diversifying out of the continent, needs to think beyond the local operating environment and develop global standards internally.”

Henry Onukwuba
Academic Director
Lagos Business School

“Through the growth and development of the strategic and leadership-based skills of our executives, we can harness and unleash the full potential of our organizations and of Africa.”
