About LBS

Lagos Business School (LBS) is the graduate business school of Pan-Atlantic University.

LBS offers academic programmes, executive programmes, and short courses (customized to specific company needs and open enrollment courses) in management. Its offerings have been accredited globally and ranked among the best in Africa, as it systematically strives to improve the practice of management on the continent. Several world-class accreditations and rankings have recognised the business school's efforts. Besides the quality bar set at world standards, LBS programmes also stand out because of the emphasis on professional ethics and service to the community.

Education at LBS is comprehensive, drawing on the experiences of a multinational faculty and participants. Learning is participant-centred and uses the case study method.

LBS has a robust alumni association with more than 8,000 members. This large, diverse community and our strong industry ties ensure that our programmes are of global standards while maintaining local relevance.

About SMSS

The School of Management and Social Sciences (SMSS) is one of the academic units of Pan-Atlantic University. It offers undergraduate and graduate courses in management and social sciences. The SMSS offers first-degree programmes in the following courses: BSc in Accounting; BSc in Business Administration; BSc in Economics; and BSc in Finance. It also offers an MSc in Economics and a PhD in Management.

The School of Management and Social Sciences (SMSS) is a community of people committed to creating and transmitting knowledge and competences in management and social sciences by forming competent and socially responsible professionals who are committed to the promotion of the common good of society and the advancement of the management and social sciences profession. In order to achieve this mission, the School seeks to:

- Provide practice-based, student-centred and industry-relevant programmes that address technical expertise, industrial management, and ethical responsibility.
- Develop partnerships and engage with relevant stakeholders through applied research that provides solutions to industry problems and enhance social and management sciences pedagogy.
- Provide entrepreneurship education along with management and social science education.

Pan-Atlantic University is owned by the Pan-Atlantic University Foundation (PAUF), a non-profit foundation registered in Nigeria. Its foundation was inspired by the teachings of St. Josemaria Escrivá, the founder of Opus Dei. Learning at the Pan-Atlantic University is thus based on a Christian conception of society, economic activity, and the dignity of the human person. The Prelature of Opus Dei provides the spiritual and pastoral means necessary for the School to sustain and develop its Christian identity, and helps to ensure that the teaching, publishing and research activities at the Pan-Atlantic University seek a coherent union between faith, thought and life.
